Essay Prompt for Global Village Community at BSC is committed to attracting and enrolling a diverse community of students interested in the exploration of living in a global village. (Maximum 400 words.)

Briefly explain how you would bring a unique perspective, background, or a set of experiences that will support and enhance the educational, personal growth of this community, and how other participants, or the BLLC, would benefit from your participation.

Please email essay to newacadprog@buffalostate.edu. Deadline 06/17/2018

By signing this document, you understand that you are signing up to participate in the Bengal Learning Community at Buffalo State College. You also understand that if you are selected into a Bengal Living Learning Community (BLLC), you are required to live with other participants in the designated residence hall and this will override any preferences you have made on your housing contract. If you would like your roommate to live with you, your roommate MUST also indicate the same BLLC.
